SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT

By special request, and to help others interested in the important subject the Rev. William F. Pitts, Pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church, will preach next Sunday morning on, "THE FIRST RESURRECTION AND ITS BENEFITS—THE SECOND RESURRECTION AND ITS CONSEQUENCES," as taught in the twentieth chapter of Revelation and elsewhere in the New Testament. There are to be two resurrections—first of the saints, then one thousand years later, at the end of the Millennium, the resurrection of the wicked, followed by the general judgment and the distribution of rewards. This subject deals with the state of the soul between natural death and the resurrection, and the employment of the saints during the Millennium of one thousand years. All this, and more, enters into God's great plan for the human race as revealed in the Scriptures. The public cordially invited.

PRODIGAL SON WITH

FORTUNE SAVED FARM

Springfield, Mo., July 4.—After having dropped out of the knowledge of the family sixteen years ago with proceeds from the sale of three cars of mortgaged cattle that he had bought in Kansas City and sold in St. Louis, D. M. McLemore returned to Greenfield, Dade county, last week with one-fourth million dollars, amazed from cattle buying ventures with Villistas and Carranzistas since the outbreak of troubles in Mexico. He made a trip half way across the continent to relieve his father from financial straits, of which he had been informed by a boyhood acquaintance whom he chanced to meet in California.

McLemore's father was obliged to make good the price of the cattle that his son had sold years ago, and the experiences so crippled his finances that he was about to lose his farm. A friend who had known of the son's whereabouts two years ago, met him, and his message caused the prodigal son's trip from Klamath Falls, Ore., to Greenfield. Youn McLemore now is cashier of a national bank in the Oregon city. Patrick McLemore, the father, is 82 years old and a Confederate veteran who served under Price during the Civil war.

BUGGIES! BUGGIES! BUGGIES!

We have a few Buggies left unsold from this season, and are very anxious to close out and start with a clean sheet for another year. As an inducement for those who are contemplating buying a buggy, we will make you some very attractive prices on anything that we have in stock unsold. While, of course, it is near the close of the season and all, yet our stock is well assorted and good styles, and buggies that would please any person desiring a nice neat buggy.

Come in and examine what we have and look over the prices at once.

Yours very truly,
